Capabilities Statement

Corporate Overview

PCI Productions is a proven business entity bringing 30 years of leadership and expertise in award-winning communication media production, quality professional services, federal contracting knowledge, DCAA compliant systems, high quality benefits, and mature business systems for exceptional performance. PCI Productions is an ideal small business prime contractor and business partner to support federal and state customers. PCI Productions is actively seeking competitive bid opportunities, sole source contracts, joint venture, and subcontracts.

We are a strategic partner with our customers and help evaluate, identify, execute, and monitor the success of their business operations and communications activities. Our focus is professional services to support our customer in the areas of communications and business operations. This includes public affairs and engagement, media production, event support, computer programming, legislative affairs, recruiting, administrative, and business analysis.

We operate as an extension of our customers' mission and partner together to reach their goals. To achieve this we start with quality employees and introduce new and innovative approaches, methods, and technologies to deliver high performance. Our goal is to increase operational performance and enhance efficiency while delivering exceptional customer satisfaction.
